Summer 2016 (July and August)

July 31st	Science and Spirituality: 1-4 pm This Centennial Sunday in July revives a topic discussed at length in the writings of a co-founder of the Theosophical Society, Madame Blavatsky, and in a program at our lodge on November 17, 1989. We will approach the topic from several contemporary points of view. A Q-and-A session follows.
August 14th	The Mahatmas: 1-4 pm Also known as Ascended Masters, Adepts, and Masters of the Ancient Wisdom, Mme Blavatsky received many ideas fundamental to Theosophy from two of them, her teachers. A Centennial Sunday, this topic has been discussed often, including February 1937 and November 1990.
Every Wed. in July and August	Library Night: 6-8 pm An opportunity for the public and TS members alike to browse the shelves of our extensive esoteric library, as well as converse with others on a wide range of topics. Borrowing privileges are only extended to current members of the Theosophical Society. However all are welcomed for browsing and on-site reading. If you have any questions, please contact Aj Hyde by email at tsmdlbrarynight@gmail.com . Please check our website or Facebook page before you come on any given Wednesday in case there is a cancellation.
	Upcoming events in the Fall include: 10/14-16 - David Keltz' performances as Edgar Allen Poe (w/ticket charge); 10/23-"Religions of the Silk Road" with special guest speaker, Maria Drumm, noted traveler, author and photographer.

A Gurdjieff Group is associated with the Lodge; it meets on some Tuesday evenings at the Lodge and also in teleconference. Call to apply - 732-291-4747.

The Theosophical Society is non-political, non-sectarian, and non-dogmatic. It has three declared objects: 1) to form a nucleus of the universal brotherhood of humanity without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or color; 2) to encourage the study of religion, philosophy, and science; 3) to investigate unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in humanity.
