NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 2017

	Please Note: The following one-time changes – times for the Sunday, 11/19 program, and the date for the 2nd Library Night in November
Wed, 11/1, 6-8 pm	Library Night: an opportunity for the public and TS members alike to browse the shelves of our extensive esoteric library, as well as to engage in impromptu conversations on a variety of topics. Borrowing privileges are extended to current members of the Theosophical Society. However all are welcomed for browsing and on-site reading. Parking on our block of Charles St is free after 6 pm
Sun, 11/5, 1-3 pm	Open Discussion: What book/article/movie really grabbed your interest recently? Tell us a little about it and then we open up the floor to respectful discussion, everyone contributing from their own point of view and personal experiences. Choose any topic that touches on our Three Declared Objects (see below).
Sun, 11/12, 1-3 pm	What is this "I"? Caty Green Ms Green uses the experience of an actor incarnating a character on stage, to illustrate how we reincarnate ourselves
Sun, 11/19, 2-5 pm	Ancient Egyptian Qigong and the Emerald Tablet Dr. Frankie Hutton

A Gurdjieff Group is associated with the Lodge; it meets on some Tuesday evenings at the Lodge and also in teleconference. Call to apply - 732-291-4747.

The Theosophical Society is non-political, non-sectarian, and non-dogmatic. It has three declared objects: 1) to form a nucleus of the universal brotherhood of humanity without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or color; 2) to encourage the study of religion, philosophy, and science; 3) to investigate unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in humanity.

	This will be an introductory talk, with demonstrations, which delves into the wonders of energetics, polarity balancing and protection, as well as the initiation rites of ancient Egypt. The talk will be based on numerous sources, including exhibits from the Egyptian wing of the Metropolitan Museum; the written works of clairvoyants such as Quitt and Leadbeater; also the Emerald Tablet , and Frankie's own intuitive understanding. Frankie has witnessed through her global travels that the practices of ancient Egypt have found their way around the globe, and in varying forms have been and are practiced by the Chinese, Japanese, and others.
Wed, 11/22, 6-8 pm	Library Night (see above). In December, Library Night will return to the third Wednesday in a month.
